SOLACE IN SICKNESS.

When upon a bed of sickness, you have stretched your weary frame; When each muscle, bone and nerve is aching, and you are unable to move; When the thought that "this is sickness," With its aches and pains are over, and the long, long ones of night-time, Surely bring the morning's sun.

Then a thought comes gently to you: Comes with healing on its wings, Fragrant as the blossoming meadows, Sweet as songs that breathe of home, "The thought that 'this is sickness,' With its aches and pains are over, and the long, long ones of night-time, Surely bring the morning's sun."

Where everybody can find relief of his wants, except those of our competitors, who get sick through our low prices on clothing, and who will still grow sicker, when they find that the price and quality of the new suits placed on our counters this week. We court a comparison of quality and prices. May 19-dlt

AN ASTONISHING FACT.

A large proportion of the American people are today suffering from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Dr. Green's August Flower, your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

We will duplicate eastern prices on Gas Fixtures, and put them up free of charge. H. MURDER & Co. May 16-dwt

THE MEXICANIZERS.

How the Revolutionists Propose to Proceed.

Some of Their Indiscreet Utterances.

The Latest European News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23.—Judging from the unguarded expressions of Democratic members, the extreme element expect to pursue the rule or ruin policy. One says to-night, "We will have Hayes out of the White House within six months, or have another rebellion." Another remarked, "Some night you will hear of Hayes and his family landed at the depot and shipped for Fremont." Another, "the public mind needs to be educated up to this thing. When Montgomery Blair submitted his memorial and resolution to the Maryland Legislature, it was ridiculed by everybody. Now the movement has taken definite shape and is a subject which overshadows the whole people. The object of the Potter investigation is to educate the public mind. The testimony is important only in this direction our purpose is fixed. The Democratic party will use the machinery of the Federal Government to elect the next President." Another said: "At the proper time, if necessary, we can concentrate at the capital, without attracting attention, enough men to carry out any purpose which the Democratic party may have to accomplish." Another fixed the time for the initial steps, said: "By December, this investigation will have proven the frauds practiced in order to place Hayes in the Presidential Chair, and we will refuse to receive his annual message. We can control the Senate on that, but if it can not be done in December, we will have both Houses after March 4." It is evident from such expressions from men high in the Democratic party what the real purposes of the Democrats are, notwithstanding their efforts to disguise their real meaning. The Potter investigation Committee have been in constant conference with members of the National Committee and representatives of the Tilden interest, and despite their professions of campaign thunder alone actuating their movements, a member of the committee, speaking of the efforts to secure an affirmation of Hayes' title, said the natural result of this investigation, should fraud be proven, would be in one of those who were benefited by the fraud, and to put the right party in. As a part of the Democratic programme, of the various propositions which have been attempted in the House, the practical operation would be to disband the army or to prohibit its use except in the Indian country. Some solicitude is expressed by the Democratic Senators and has been communicated to the members of Potter's committee as to the probability of establishing what they have started out to prove. The members of the committee say that there is no occasion for alarm on that score, as they will prove everything. This being the case, the results indicated by Democratic leaders may be anticipated. The Democratic Senators say if the committee fail in its work it will sadly damage the prospects of the Democratic party.

LONDON, May 23.—Count Schouvaloff had an interview with Lord Salisbury, Foreign secretary, to-day.

It is authoritatively stated that Count Schouvaloff brings from the Czar counter proposals, couched in conciliatory terms proposing that all questions pertaining to European Turks be submitted to and treated by the proposed European congress, and that all questions relating to Turkey in Asia, be made the subject of a separate convention between England and Russia.

The Times says it becomes every day a more and more imperative necessity for Russia to obtain recognition by other powers of some modified arrangement under which she will be relieved from what is practically a state of war. This can only be done by a full discussion of the San Stefano treaty in a European Congress. Russia already knows the simple condition on which alone England can enter such a congress. It may be modified possibly in form, but in substance it must be conceded.

LONDON, May 24.—The Post publishes the following in a semi-official form:—Count Schouvaloff brings assurance that the disposition in St. Petersburg for peace quite equals that in London. He is also bearer of certain expressions of willingness to meet our views, and of a general scheme of arrangement for reconciliation. Russia, however, declines to pass a sponge over the treaty of San Stefano, but is prepared to discuss in a congress its various stipulations. The Count brings assurances that Gen. Tulebon has been forbidden to make any attempt to surprise Constantinople, and also that the Russian government is not connected with the manifesto recently issued by a committee for equipping cruisers.

The Post's article continues: "If Russia authorized an expenditure of four million roubles to equip cruisers on the other side of the Atlantic, that must be taken as an equivalent against our summons of Indian troops. The next few days will probably witness an inception of poor parlers which may ultimately lead to a basis for more definite negotiations."

THE ILLINOIS DELEGATION.

George Scroggs, of the Champaign Gazette, in writing up the events of a visit to Washington, thus speaks of the Illinois Delegation in the House.

The Illinois Delegation is as good as any unless it may be that of Ohio. Adrich has made many friends and is a very pleasant gentleman. He is remarkably well posted, and while not an orator, despatches business in a way that beats talk. Trentano is a methodical worker, careful and conscientious. His German habits make him industrious and painstaking. Carter Harrison is the sole guardian of the American spread eagle.

Leaving the Chicago delegation we next come to Fathrip, of Rockford. He has done but little, the fate of all members serving their first term. He is an able lawyer and a man of good judgment and sound sense. Has made a few short speeches which were creditable to him.

Borchard, of Freeport, is one of the best posted men in the house. Any man in the Illinois delegation could be better posted than Borchard, he is so well posted. He has been here since 1863, succeeding Washburne, which of itself made it hard for him in the beginning.

Henderson, of Princeton, is on the committee on claims. He is a quiet and effective worker. Doesn't figure much on the floor, but is not in any sense an idle or indifferent member.

Hayes is from the 7th district, and one of the fifteen editors in the House. He is publisher of the Morris Herald, and beat old Alexander Campbell, the demo-independent candidate. This is his first term, and like all new members, has been sent to the foot of the class and muzzled.

Fort is one of the strongest men in the delegation, is well posted on all currency questions and really should have the credit of the silver bill.

Col. Tom Boyd is an active and effective orator. His record as citizen, soldier and legislator is greatly to his credit.

Marsh, of the 10th district, is also a new member but a very promising one. He has been rather quiet thus far but is destined to take good rank.

Knapp, of the Quincy district, is serving his second term. I have so far learned but little about him.

Bill Springer is the jumping jack of the house. He is not in favor with his own party which have tried repeatedly to get him down on him. He seeks notoriety, must have it, sacrifices everything for it, and is simply a dumpling who is irresistible.

Cannon has earned the reputation of a hardworking and industrious member. Does not speak often and always gets a respectful hearing. He is better posted upon the mail service than any man in Congress, while his opposition to the Brazilian subsidy mail scheme was not much to his credit.

Eden has rapidly gained both position and influence in the house. He is a strong man in his party, and as chairman of the committee on war claims, has faithfully tried to shut out that class of snail and Southern claims which are now pressing to the front. He is one of the best men the Democrats have here.

Sparks is also a democrat, and has the best committee position awarded to any of the Illinois men. This he got by opposing Morrison, for Speaker, and supporting Randall from the very first. He is a loud, swaggering talker.

Morrison is a democrat deserving to be ranked with the best and most influential of his party. He is a pleasant gentleman, socially, but a strong partisan. Some time ago he was ill, very ill; had pneumonia, and it was thought that he would die. One evening when Eden and Knapp were watching with him, after a long silence he turned to Eden and said: "John, I want to make one request. If I die, don't let that d-d fool, Sparks, get up on the floor of the house and make a fuss over my dead body. Let some of the boys say something if they want to; any of the delegation; I don't care who. May be Dick Townsend would like to speak. If he does, let him; it won't hurt me, but my dying request is that you keep that d-d fool, Sparks, down." The boys assured him it should be done, and thus at rest and satisfied he got well.

I must not forget my friend Judge Tipton, of Bloomington. Most of the leaders of the Gazette are familiar with his ability as a jurist and his fine social qualities. Here, as on the bench, he is just as easy as an old shoe. He is a new member, and, like all the others, is crowded into a back seat.

Hartell, of the 18th district, is a great, big, quiet nobody. He has done little or nothing more than draw his pay. He will not be renominated by the democrats, and wouldn't be elected if he was.

My young friend Dick Townsend is one of the youngest members in the house. He used to be a page in the representative hall where he now sits as M. C. Sam Marshall was then a member and took a fancy to the young page. Dick finally went home with him and studied law in Marshall's office. Was admitted to the bar in 1862, subsequently married a beautiful girl and a fortune at the same time, and, in course of events, became the successor in congress of his friend and patron.—The last campaign Dick beat Bonham, the Republican candidate, and Bill Anderson, the independent. His district is strongly Democratic, and but for his politics Townsend would become of the best fellows in my list of acquaintances.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

S. S. CONVENTION.—To-morrow morning we shall begin printing a supplement containing the entire proceedings of the late Ready school convention. We have already received orders amounting to between 4000 and 5000 copies. Parties in the city who desire copies should leave their orders this evening, or early in the morning, as we shall print only as many as are ordered, and distribute the form at once.

An Elegant Line of custom made Scotch and Cheviot Cassimere Suits, equal to merchant tailoring, for young men's wear, at B. STERN'S.

SEA FOAM SOAP.

Lewis has the best assortment of Perfumery in the city.

PAKE LUNCH every day at Cals & Dodson's saloon, commencing at 10 o'clock.

New Am. I can Sewing Machine.—The best in the world. $8 north side new machine.

The convention is over.

Don't seem scarce in town to-day.

Hot and sultry, and weather prophets say more rain.

Next in order are house flies and mosquitoes.

Cats, and are those bats for children, at Keeler's Hat Store.

Chicken fresh bread at the Union bakery every morning.

A number of those square crown stiff hats, just received at Keeler's.

A FULL line of wall papers at Hild & Shoy's, cheaper than the cheapest.

A "Jon Law" of straw and fur hats, at less than half of manufacturer's cost, at Keeler's.

Pink old government Java at the Young Men's grocery, at Newell & Hammer's old stand.

LADIES' FRINGE SHOES, at Barber & Bickel's.

This grand jury visited the jail in a body this forenoon. This is a part of the grand jury's duty at each term of court.

This raging Sangamon has been "on a high," but is falling now; the water going down this morning at the rate of an inch per hour.

LEAVE commercial Wood's for Ice Cream, he packs it in ice, and delivers to any part of the city.

STRAWBERRIES were sold yesterday afternoon and to-day at three boxes for a quarter. This is about as low as they usually get in this market.

GINKGO nuts are getting more plenty and are selling at from fifty to sixty cents per peck.

The criminal docket of the circuit court will receive attention on Monday next, and will probably occupy about two weeks, and should a large number of bills be found by the grand jury it may require more time.

MAYOR PRICKER and the Board of Health, Drs. McBride, Nibley and Cass Chesebrough, made the tour of the city to-day in a carriage, with their respective noses on the alert to discover bad smells, etc.

THREE families who entertained delegates during the convention complain of being long-time since their guests left, and after the appearance of so many strangers upon the streets as have been in the city for the last few days, their disappearance makes the city seem a little dull.

SHORTLY the weather continue warm and fair, as it is to-day, a good deal of corn will be cultivated next week—indeed, considerable would have been done in that line this week had not the ground been too wet.

THE Brooklyn Union Argus is out in a lengthy article advocating the idea of having the Fourth of July celebrated in the country a moral and religious turn, and suggests that Sunday schools select that day for their annual picnic. It urges also, that addresses on such occasions be well speeded with patriotism.—The article depreciates the degeneracy which is indicated by making the day one for noisy fun on the part of children, and drunkenness and debauchery on the part of older people. The matter is certainly one of importance, and we hope in the observance of the day in this city this year may rise to the true idea of an appropriate celebration of the Nation's birthday.

DELEGATE HOSPITALITY.—Between six and seven hundred delegates were entertained by the families of our people in the course of the convention, and yet there was more room, and three hundred more could have been fed and lodged without any strain. The convention has been greatly enjoyed by our people, and also by the delegates.

MORE HYGIENIC IMPROVEMENT.—A movement is on foot for the graveling, guttering, tiling and curbing of Cemetery street, from South Main street to the cemetery gate. It is proposed to have this work done at the expense of the whole city, and to be paid for by general taxation. The movement is a good one, and in view of the fact that Mr. John Imboden proposes to furnish most of the gravel free of expense to the city, the work can be done very cheap.

MRS. JONES, at 30 East Main street, does fashionable dress-making to order; also stamping by the latest French patterns.

Call on Bishop & Day to buy or trade for a new cook stove, cheaper than can be had anywhere else. Southeast corner of the city park. [March 29-dtf]

THE SPRINGFIELD EXCURSION.

A number of our citizens went down to Springfield yesterday to be present at the ceremonies there of removing the battle flags and war relics from the State Arsenal to Memorial Hall, in the new state house. Twenty-six of the Decatur Guards went down in uniform, and were a part of the military escort for the day. The Guards had as many of their number as any company present, except the Governor's Guards, and the boys made a very fine appearance. The military companies were in attendance and none appeared better in the procession than the Guards.

The place occupied by each company corresponded to its letter, which gave our boys the eighth position in the line. The procession started from the old state house about 12 o'clock, marching from there to the arsenal, where the Veterans, who numbered about one thousand in line, received the flags and war relics, and from this point the procession moved through the principal streets of the city, drawing up in front of the new State House, where the military escort drew up in line and presented arms while the Veterans passed.

This ended the duty of the escort, and the companies broke rank, and our boys put in the balance of the day in taking rations and doing the city.

The homeward trip was made by the regular train, which arrives here at 10:30. Among the Veterans who went from Decatur and Macon county were Capt. R. P. Lytle, Maj. G. H. Steele, Capt. Geo. H. Durfee, Geo. V. Loring, Samuel Mayers, of Mt. Zion, and Wm. F. Martin, who carried the flag of the 7th Cavalry. J. B. Shellabarger and family, and Lieut. B. O. Reynolds, of the Grenadiers, F. B. Caldwell, and Mrs. W. R. Abbott, with others whose names we did not learn, were also in attendance.

The base ball club—Decatur Browns—also went down and played a match game with the "Reds" of Springfield, the score being 18 for the Reds to 2 for the Browns. The rainfall at Springfield was not as heavy as here, and did not particularly interfere with the ceremonies of the day.

A CRITICISM FOR LAWYERS.—Our former fellow-citizen, Henry M. Oberdorfer, who is now a resident of Milwaukee, has written a column article for the Sentinel of that city, in which he takes the bar of that city to task for their inaction and stupidity in regard to the bankrupt law.

Mr. O. handles the legal fraternity of that city without mincing, and suggests to them that it is the duty of lawyers to use their influence to place upon the statute books of their state not laws that will protect rogues in cheating honest men, but laws that will protect honest men against rogues. The article is well written and makes some strong points.

BRUTAL MURDER AT TAYLORVILLE.

Barbarous Killing of a Woman by a Boy.

Within a mile of the center of the town of Taylorville lives a man named Hamilton, who is paralyzed, or partially so, and not able to do much work. His wife has been in bad health, and they had in their employ a boy named Day, some 14 to 16 years of age, who was a sort of general helper about the place. Yesterday the man and boy were at work near the barn, making a chicken coop, and about noon Hamilton told the boy to go to the house and build a fire for Mrs. H., to prepare dinner. He went to the house as directed, and in a short time came back to the barn. After some time the boy again went to the house and immediately ran back to where Hamilton was, telling him that his wife was weltering in a pool of blood on the floor, and that he had seen three tramps going through a field near by, in a direction indicating that they had been to the house. The man told the boy to run to town and raise the alarm, which he did, and the three tramps were soon arrested by the sheriff and a posse of men. Upon examination it was discovered that the unfortunate woman had been struck five times on the head, the gashes having the appearance of having been made with an ax. Strange as it may appear she lived until one o'clock this morning, and it is said, recovered consciousness sufficient to tell who had struck the deadly blows. In the meantime the tramps had been examined, and there was no evidence adduced against them, but the mystery had been revealed by the victim herself, and that the boy finally acknowledged the crime, and took the sheriff to the spot where he had concealed the ax. He says that when he went to the house to build the fire the woman was lying on the bed or lounge, and that he killed her because she had slapped him. One report says he was angry because she had slapped him the day before, and that he killed her in her sleep. Another reports him as saying that she was lying on the lounge, and reproved him for splitting the kindling on the floor; that when he would not do so she rose up and slapped him in the face, which so angered him that he struck her with the ax, and when he saw that he had knocked her down he thought he had better finish her.

The boy Day has the reputation of being a tough fellow, and belongs to a family of rather bad reputation.

OVER.

Close of the S. S. Convention.

INTERESTING REPORT OF THE EXERCISES.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention was called to order by President Thompson. Devotional exercises conducted by Wm. Spooner.

Singing "A Little While."

After certain announcements, J. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, continued his address on Normal classes. He spoke of the importance of religious education, and insisted upon the necessity of having things done just so, according to a long established rule. The singing here and there, but have variety this variety with a plan. He gave a series of blackboard exercises, showing the slides that can be used to a proper study of the Scriptures. The teaching of Mr. Jacobs enlisted the closest attention from the convention. He is an earnest, enthusiastic S. S. worker.

Singing—"My Mission Field."

Dr. C. H. Blackall, of Chicago, was called to the desk, and conducted a devotional exercise, gave members of the convention an opportunity to ask questions.

It was asked, What should new S. S. minds be taught? At a special meeting, if possible, should pupils attend less than one school? It was agreed that where they did, they soon got to know very little about either, or became S. S. tramps.

Should the S. S. be supported from the daily class collection? Opinions differed, but it was agreed that where the S. S. was controlled and directed by the church, it should be, the collections should be applied to some specified object.

How shall the temperance question be handled? Lead the children to Christ, organize Bands of Hope, give special instruction, and use discretion in the presentation of this and all subjects.

How should reviews be conducted? In various ways, but necessarily, in a large degree, in the catechetical form.

What is the best hour for the session of the S. S.? Circumstances must settle. The morning hour generally preferred.

Should visitors be invited to address the S. S.? Very seldom. View few know how to talk to children. When visitors do talk it should be upon the lesson.

How much time should the Sept. use from the desk? The smallest amount possible—very little.

How should pupils be classified? According to mental qualifications, and previous opportunities for study of the word.

How much time for one session? One to one and-a-half hours, the usual time, and probably the best.

Where should the officers be elected? By the school or the church? It was decided by Dr. Blackall that they be chosen by the school and confirmed by the church. The church and the S. S. should be one.

Would you ask the printed questions on the lesson paper? Not generally, without you could ask better ones, or even as good. They may be asked, but many others should be added, to test a thorough knowledge of the subject. No secular teacher ever uses printed questions, but must understand the subject, and put to get the knowledge of the pupil.

The teacher must use common sense in deciding how far the printed questions should be used.

Mr. Capps, of Jersey county, spoke of the S. S. work in his county. He said that he had worked as a missionary in his county, and they now had 50 organized schools in their little county, with a membership of over 3000. He said the money was raised by individual subscriptions. Asking if from or appointing it to schools proved a failure.

The nominating committee made an additional report, which was adopted, and was followed by

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1. J. F. Jacobs, Chairman, Chicago.

2. M. C. Hazard, Chicago.

3. W. H. Thompson, St. Louis.

It was moved, and agreed to, that the name of Wm. Reynolds, of Peoria, be added to the Executive Committee to represent the State at large.

The president, Rev. J. O. Foster, briefly thanked the convention for the aid given him in presiding, and the honor done him by thus adding to his comfort and pleasure as the presiding officer during the sessions of the convention.

D. F. Jacobs made the appointment of a committee on resolutions. Agreed to. Committee: C. H. Blackall, of Chicago; William Thorne, of Olney, and J. H. C. Barker, of Clinton.

At 4:15 the convention informally adjourned. A large number of children from the city having responded to an invitation to be present at this hour to take part. The exercises were led by W. H. Jacobs and Mrs. W. E. Crafts, of Chicago, and were very instructive, not only to the children, but to the members of the convention. The lessons were presented in the ordinary manner of these teachers, and will serve as models for many of the teachers present.

R. F. Jacobs made a request of the children that they send to him at least two teachers of the S. S. on Saturday to present to his Sunday school in Chicago, on Sunday next. This the children promptly promised, and it was agreed that they have their school at the residence of J. H. Jacobs, Esq., on West Prairie street, on Saturday morning, not later than 9 o'clock.

Mr. Gorin will see to the packing and forwarding of the flowers.

Resolution by President Thompson.
